

Electrometal
ARAD

The advertisement features a collection of black and white illustrations of household appliances. At the top, there is a small four-wheeled cart or trolley. Below it, the brand name 'Electrometal' is written in a large, stylized, bold font, with 'ARAD' in a smaller, plain font underneath. To the left of the central stove is a tall, cylindrical electric kettle or water boiler with a handle. In the bottom left corner is a small, round, two-handled cooking pot. To the right of the central stove is a large, open umbrella. The central focus is a four-legged electric stove with a flat top and two doors at the bottom. The entire advertisement is enclosed in a simple rectangular border.
